1 EPIX

Intended to future-proof offices, this collection — a first-time partnership with Sweden's Form Us With Love — comprises chairs, tables, shelving and storage (another first for the brand), all made entirely from recyclable materials. The reconfigurable pieces are aimed at creating distinct gathering spaces that foster creativity. keilhauer.com

2 CABANA LOUNGE

With their short depths and upright rounded backs, the single-seat, two-seat and corner sofas in Cabana Lounge encourage postures that facilitate engaged work. The compact modules, designed by Patricia Urquiola, can be fitted with privacy screens in two heights, along with power, tables (attached or freestanding) and more. haworth.com

3 VETTORE

Designed by Milan's Toan Nguyen, this modular lounge series is built around a uniform low-profile metal base that can be topped with a combination of upholstered sections (with or without backs and arms) and clean-lined tables (veneer or laminate). Multiple fabrics and finishes are offered. studiotk.com

4 FREE ADDRESS 2.0

Expanding on the original, 2.0 tackles both storage and separation needs with higher-backed sofas, taller tables, cubbies and lockers in various sizes, screens and planters. Ideal for smaller footprints and flexible scenarios, the components can be arranged for groups of any size. stylexseating.com
