KEILHAUER EXPANDS THE CAHOOTS COLLECTION WITH MODERN FINISHES

The long-loved Cahoots finishes now offered in wood, quartz and more

June 13, 2022 (Chicago) – Today at NeoCon, Keilhauer is launching new finishes for a selection of products from their award-winning Cahoots product line, which was originally launched at NeoCon in 2010. The line’s side and lounge chairs are now available with wood bases, and its tabletops are now available in two new options: laminate or quartz, supplied by Cambria Quartz Surfaces.

“Cahoots is a multidimensional lounge collection, and EOOS’s designs have remained stylish and versatile for over 10 years,” says Meghan Sherwin, Chief Marketing Officer. “The addition of these materials ensures that this iconic collection will remain modern and fresh, providing designers with a rush of newfound inspiration and possibility.”

This is Keilhauer’s second collaboration with Cambria, who also supplies quartz tabletop options for the company’s Juxta collection. The Cahoots quartz tabletops are available in seven standout finishes: Cambria Black, White Cliff, Ella, Delgatie, Rose Bay, Ella Matte and Rose Bay Matte. Selecting quartz for the Cahoots table lends an air of luxury and sophistication to this versatile table, which is available in three different sizes. Providing exceptional value, Cahoots tabletops are also now available in laminate.

Previously only available in a steel base, Cahoots’ side and lounge chairs can now be specified in four-legged wood options, available in ash or walnut. This new material adds an organic, warm, and natural look to Cahoots seating options, increasing the versatility and adaptability of the collection.
