KEILHAUER'S FORSI CHAIR NAMED BEST OF YEAR

The company's innovative conference chair awarded at NYC ceremony

December 14, 2022 (Toronto) – As 2022 comes to a close, Keilhauer is thrilled to announce that the company's Forsi conference chair has been presented with a Best of Year Award from Interior Design Magazine, winning in the Contract Conference Seating category.

On December 8, the architecture and design industry gathered at Penn1 in Manhattan to celebrate the winners and honorees of Interior Design's 17th annual Best of Year Awards. The magazine's Editor-in-Chief, Cindy Allen, hosted the event and announced the winners at the in-person ceremony, which was also livestreamed online by DesignTV® by SANDOW.

Originally launched at NeoCon in Chicago this summer, Forsi is a conference furniture collection that is designed to meet the needs of the modern meeting. Designed by acclaimed Keilhauer collaborators EOOS, Forsi conference chairs feature an innovative working lounge height that exists in a new space between conference room formality and lounge area relaxation.

"The Forsi collection acts as a sophisticated, functional solution for the modern workplace, and the evolving needs of those who occupy them," says Mike Keilhauer, President. "We are so honored that Forsi was recognized and celebrated by our A&D community at this prestigious event."

The Forsi collection's table was also recognized by Interior Design – the elegant, functional conference table was a Best of Year honoree in the Contract Work/Conference Tables category. Melete, Keilhauer's standout sculptural side chair, was also recognized as an honoree in the Contract Guest Seating category.
