February 9, 2026 (Toronto) – Keilhauer is pleased to announce appointments of two new Regional Sales Managers to expand and strengthen leadership within their Sales department. Effective today, Kristin Vesely and Courtney Wcislo have joined the company.

Kristin Vesely has been building teams, growing businesses, and creating strong partnerships in the commercial interiors industry for over a decade. Most recently, she founded WorkWell Interiors in Grand Rapids, where she led the business end to end. Before starting her own firm, Kristin held leadership roles with Kentwood Office Furniture in both Chicago and Grand Rapids. Kristin is known for her people-first leadership style, clear strategy, and ability to align design, sales, and execution to drive growth. In her role as Regional Sales Manager, Kristin will manage the network of independent sales reps across the Eastern US region.

Courtney Wcislo brings more than a decade of experience in the contract furniture industry, with a background spanning business development, operations, and sales leadership. Courtney joins Keilhauer from Holmes + Brakel Business Interiors, where she served as Director of Sales. She's known for her collaborative approach and ability to connect client needs with design driven solutions that are intentional and human-centered. In her role as Regional Sales Manager, Courtney will manage the network of independent sales reps across Canada. Courtney began her career in commercial furniture at Keilhauer, and the company is delighted to welcome her back.

Please join the team at Keilhauer in welcoming Kristin Vesely and Courtney Wcislo into their new roles.
